'Smell My Color' is a new perfumance by Peter de Cupere. This perfumance is a kind of remaked of the color perfumances by 'Black Beauty' from 1999 in Antwerp and in 2000 in Amsterdam. During this periode Peter de Cupere has realised other perfumances by which he used colors in combination with scents.

In the Lupercalia perfumance 'Smell My Color' the models will not be dressed in catsuits but they will be naked. The perfumance starts at 20:10 and will take +/- 20 min.
